Kids' Internet Access
Where does your child access the Internet?
- 98% Home
- 68% Mobile Phone

Kids’ online experiences
- 39.1% Seen inappropriate content online.
- 23.8% Overshared information on social media.
- 15.6% Scammed by an email or by a bad link online.
- 13.8% Cyberbullying.
- 13.6% Account hacked.

Both parents and teachers agree that kids need strong digital skills to be successful
- 90% Agree that kids should have strong digital literacy skills to be successful.
- 95% Agree that online safety and digital citizenship should be taught to all children.

Top Online Safety Issue At Home: Privacy & Security

Most important online issues for their kids
2. Inappropriate Content.
3. Information Sharing.
4. Cyberbullying.
5. Understanding Real/Fake.
6. Healthy Digital Habits.
Be Internet Awesome.

Online Safety & Teachers

January 2019

---

6 out of 10 teachers feel they have resources to teach online safety to their students, while less than half feel as equipped to help parents on this topic.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>69%</th>
<th>83%</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Think digital citizenship and online safety should be a part of their core curriculum.</td>
<td>Say they need more resources to feel equipped to teach online safety.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>62%</th>
<th>48%</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>“I have great resources for educating my students about online safety and digital citizenship.”</td>
<td>“I have great resources for informing parents about online safety and digital citizenship.”</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

Both parents and teachers agree that kids need strong digital skills to be successful

- 69%: Agree that kids should have strong digital literacy skills to be successful.
- 92%: Think digital citizenship and online safety should be a part of their core curriculum.
- 96%: Agree that online safety and digital citizenship should be taught to all children.
- 92%: Parents should be doing more to keep students safe online.
- 93%: Think kids should learn about online safety at home AND in school.
- 17%: Are confident they know enough about online safety to speak about it.

---

Top Online Safety Issue At School: Cyberbullying

1. Cyberbullying.
3. Inappropriate Content.
4. Information Sharing.
5. Healthy Digital Habits.
6. Understanding Real/Fake.

---

Source: Google Survey, United States, December 2018  |  Parents: n=2,000 ; Teachers: n=1,000