What is #IAmRemarkable?

#IAmRemarkable is a global movement that empowers everyone, including underrepresented groups, to celebrate their achievements in the workplace and beyond, while challenging the social perception around self-promotion.

At the heart of our movement is a 90 minute workshop open to everyone, hosted by global facilitators.

What do companies say about the workshop?

Executive VP, Unilever: We want everyone at Unilever to do it - it’s led to a huge difference in the quality of conversations we have, enabling better decision-making.

VP HR, Lufthansa Group: We couldn’t have found a better idea to really drive the diversity that we were actually aiming for.

Why is it important?

Imposter syndrome. Stereotypes. Culture. For many reasons, lots of us feel uncomfortable sharing our achievements. By amplifying stories and research on the transformative power of self-promotion, we want to inspire every single person to share their accomplishments.

How can it support your company and employees?

01 Drive diversity benefits and allyship by supporting underrepresented groups by getting their voices heard
02 Improve motivation and self-confidence by encouraging employees to express their achievements
03 Strengthen team cohesion and inclusion by building trust and improving the quality of communication

Our impact:

#IAmRemarkable has reached over 500,000 participants and 1300 companies across 180 countries, while impacting people’s lives by helping:

- 82% feel more confident
- 89% are more active in self-promotion
- 49% achieve job/career growth
